

St Jean Vanney Social Studies Fair

Rachel Bergeron, Stella Burke, Sarah Guarisco and Rebecca Robinson placed first at the Social Studies Fair.

Four students at St. Jean Vianney Catholic School placed first in the Division 1 section of the Louisiana State Social Studies Fair held in Lake Charles.

Stella Burke and Sarah Guarisco placed first in history with their project, "California's No. 1 Mystery: Winchester Mystery House."

Also placing first were Rebecca Robinson and Rachel Bergeron in Sociology with their project titled, "Cirque de Soliel: Acrobats, Accolades and Artists."

These students moved to the state competition after placing first or second in the Regional Social Studies Fair.

Math skills used in science projects

Students from Barbara

